British Parliamentary Debate

The main form of academic debate in schools and universities.

Overview of the structure

- 5-minute speeches
- POIs delivered between 1st and 4th minutes of speech
- Motions (topics) released 15 minutes before the debate
- 4 teams, with 2 speakers per team

Speaking Order

Brief outline of roles

GOVERNMENT BENCH	OPPOSITION BENCH
PM • Define the motion • Outline of problem • Present government case	LO • Response to PM • Oppose definition if necessary • Present opposition case
DPM • Response to LO • Continue government case	DLO • Response to DPM • Continue opposition case
MG • Response to OO • Present government extension	MO • Response to OG and MG • Present opposition extension
GW • Summarise cases • Explain their victory	OW • Summarise cases • Explain their victory

Planning

- You will have 15 minutes to plan for your debate
- This includes:
 - Setting up a definition
 - Setting up your case/extension
 - Pre-empting
- You may take notes (only on paper) during this time, which you can bring into the debate (and you can keep writing)
- No access to the Internet is allowed

TIPS:

Spend 1-2 minutes in silence before speaking with your partner to get an individual grasp on the motion.

Write easy to read notes in a clear format.

Do not bring up statistics/facts.
